Why is my Membership Important?

The Fox River and its tributaries are under constant and increasing pressure from suburban sprawl and are threatened by dams and excessive nutrients. Your membership is necessary for the defense and protection of the Fox River Watershed. Friends of the Fox River cannot achieve its mission without the participation of concerned citizens like you. Your membership will help to maintain our existing programs and assist us in expanding our work in the watershed. Whether you choose to become a volunteer monitor, participate in a Fox Rescue cleanup, attend Friends of the Fox River events, or simply be counted as a member, you are helping to protect the Fox River and its tributaries. In return, we will provide you with educational events, newsletters, volunteer opportunities, and reports of our activities on behalf of the Fox River. Together we can create the culture of stewardship needed to protect the Fox River now and for future generations.
